Gentiemen, My attention was recently called to the company and the source of the complex of the source of the complex of this office who had, through habits of intoxicating drink, become so inefficient as to be on the verge of dismissal. You will be interested to know that in six weeks not only the appetite, but practically all of the ordinary signs of dissipation disappeared, and I am assured by those interested that to "Orrine" belongs the credit for this excellent result. It is a pleasure to me to awknowledge the value of a remidy which brings results so beneficial.

Yours very truly, F. W. PALMER,
